ORGANIZATION : Department of the Treasury
Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN)
Analysis and Liaison Division
Office of Global Support

DUTY STATION : Vienna, Virginia

APPLICATIONS WILL BE ACCEPTED FROM:

- (a) Present and former Federal employees with competitive status who reside within the Washington DC commuting area, OR
- (b) Veterans who are preference eligibles or who have been separated from the armed forces under honorable conditions after 3 years or more of continuous active service, and reside within the Washington DC commuting area.

SUMMARY OF DUTIES:

This position(s) is for an Intelligence Research Specialist in the Office of Global Support of the Analysis and Liaison Division in the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN). At the higher grade levels, the employee is assigned complex, critical and sensitive issues in relation to FinCEN's support for intelligence operations in connection with the detection of money-laundering, terrorist financing and other financial crimes. Employs advanced skills to draw inferences and provide summaries, some of which may be utilized to pursue further research on these issues. Analyses may focus on specific activities, individuals or businesses, types of businesses, geographic locations, or categories of criminal activity and may have a domestic or international perspective. Serves as a source of staff support, advice, coordination, and liaison to organizations seeking to utilize FinCEN resources or expertise to aid in cross-jurisdictional investigations, develop research approaches, enhance the quality of information exchanged, or resolve common problems. Prepares case summaries, reports, materials for publications, position papers, or other materials concerning program operations. Provides training and guidance to less senior staff members in the Analytics Division. Represents FinCEN in inter-agency working groups, committees and other interactions with officials of other organizations. At the lower grade levels, the employee participates in the conduct of research and analysis, liaison with officials of organizations, and the development of reports, summaries and analyses.

BENEFITS

FinCEN offers flexible work schedules, a comprehensive leave program, 10 paid holidays, financial assistance to employees who use public transportation to commute, in-house training, reimbursement for approved outside training, telework opportunities, and eligibility for performance awards. FinCEN also offers attractive health, life, and long-term care insurance programs, and the employee's health insurance contributions are out of pre-tax dollars. Newer employees are covered by a three-tier retirement plan that includes a pre-tax retirement contribution program with matching funds or, as applicable, continuance in the Civil Service Retirement System. The office is located in a modern commercial building with a health unit and a fitness center (employees pay fitness center fee). The Vienna office has free parking and shuttle service to and from the Dunn Loring Metro station. All employees are assigned individual state-of-the-art computers.
